

NEWS FROM DALLAS

The Menorah Society of Baylor College of Medicine and the S. M. U. held a regular meeting Sunday afternoon, March 14. After the business of the society was discussed, the following program was enjoyed:

A discussion of current events by Dr. Joe Weinstein; "Culture vs. Pseudo-Culture," by Prof. Caldwell; and a violin solo by William Rosenblatt, accompanied by Miss Sarah Weinstein on the piano.

Louis Jules Hexter has returned from the East, where he has been attending college.

Miss Babetta Kuhn is visiting in Waco for two weeks, after which she will return to Dallas to continue her visit with Mrs. Philip Sanger.

After an enjoyable winter spent with her sister, Mrs. Emil Strauss, Mrs. Helen Haas has returned to the city.

Mrs. S. M. Freedman and son are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Freedman of Shreveport, La.

Dr. S. M. Freedman has gone to New York for two weeks. While in the East he will attend the clinic.

Miss Henrietta Block has returned from Atlanta, Ga., where she was the guest of her sister, Mrs. Will Montague.

Mrs. Harry E. Baum of Terrell, Tex., spent the week-end with her sister, Mrs. J. L. Goldman.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Mallinson have moved from the Oak Lawn Inn and are at home with Mr. and Mrs. Walter Shiebmam, 3019 South Boulevard.

Mrs. Fred Munsey and baby left Sunday afternoon for a six weeks' stay in Marshall and Houston.

Aubrey M. Costa of Ranger is spending several days in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Boas spent Sunday in Corsicana, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Costa, who celebrated their thirtieth wedding anniversary on that day.

Invitations have been received which read as follows: Mr. and Mrs. Leopold Godchaux will give in marriage their daughter, Elsie, to Harold Lamb Goldsmith on March 21, at 3 o'clock, at Hotel Bentley, Alexandria, La.

Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Bloom of Buffalo, N. Y., are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Zadoc Rosenthal.

On Thursday afternoon Miss Mardalena Lorch entertained a few of her intimate friends with a musicale at her home, 3501 Wendelken. A number of vocal selections and piano fortes were rendered by the guests, after which a dainty ice was served.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Goldman celebrated their silver wedding anniversary Friday evening with a dinner dance at the Columbian Club. Cards named places for fifty guests, members of the family. Mrs. Goldman was attractively gowned in a costume of silver cloth. The tables, artistically arranged in the form of a "G," were heavily laden with silver baskets of lovely cut flowers and blooming pot plants, suggestive of the spring season. During the eight-course dinner Mr. Marcus Baerwald acted as toastmaster, calling on the various guests. Numerous congratulatory messages were read. Much wit was displayed by the toasts, relating incidents of the host's and hostess' early married life. Quite apropos of the occasion were the soft strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March, which was played by the orchestra during the early part of the dinner. Dancing was enjoyed until a late hour.

Louis Lipsitz entertained Saturday evening with a dance at the Columbian Club, honoring Misses Pauline Gans and Rose Newman of San Francisco. The ballroom was tastily decorated for the occasion. During the evening punch and dainty candies refreshed the two hundred dancers. A two-course supper, cafeiteira style, was served at midnight.

COLUMBIAN CLUB ELECTS NEW OFFICERS AND HEARS REPORTS.

Officers and directors of the Columbian Club were elected at the annual meeting of the club Sunday in their building on South Ervay street. The following officers were chosen: W. S. Liebman, president; Gus Roos, vice president; directors, Eli Sanger, A. L. Kramer, Irvin Hurst, Alfred Bromberg, R. Liebman, B. S. Cahn and Louis Reinhardt. The board of directors will serve with the six directors held over from last year. The following entertainment committee was elected: Clarence Mallinson, chairman; Fred Hirsch, Julius G. Hexter, Jack Fechenbach and W. S. Meyer. The outgoing president, Louis Reinhardt, reported that the club had closed a successful year and that the plans for social activities for the balance of the season and the coming year will be carried out in full.

FORMER OFFICE BOY MADE CREDIT MANAGER.

Zade Rosenthal Succeeds to Place of W. O. Connor With Sanger Bros.

In announcing the appointment of Zade Rosenthal as successor to W. C. Connor, resigned, as the head of the credit department of Sanger Bros., President A. Sanger said:

"Mr. Connor leaves the credit department well organized and I feel sure that Mr. Rosenthal, who has been his assistant, with the co-operation of the other assistants, will continue the same satisfactory policies that have been carried out heretofore.

"This important branch of our business is under the supervision of C. L. Sanger also, who is an expert in the handling of credits. Mr. Rosenthal is in touch with the duties, and is in accord with our manner of handling the credit department.

"The promotion of Mr. Rosenthal is in line with the policy of the firm in filling higher positions from the rank and file of its employees. Mr. Rosenthal has been in the employ of the firm from early boyhood, and in the course of his connection with us he has filled numerous positions on the way up."

Mr. Rosenthal lives at 1821 Peabody avenue. He began with Sanger Bros. when he was 12 years old, in the capacity of office boy, and was subsequently transferred to the mail order department, where he remained several years. His next position was in the claims and adjustment department, and then he was transferred to

Continental Bank & Trust Company

Seventh and Houston Streets

Capital and Surplus $700,000.00

Examined Regularly by the State

Commercial and Savings Accounts Invited

4 Per Cent on Savings

BUY IT AT RENFRO'S, 7 Busy Rexall Drug Stores

Rugs and Draperies

THE HOME DEPARTMENT

Ready to supply all your home needs in this line. Being helpful to the hundreds of people whose first interests lie in their homes is part of a big vision behind this department of Rugs and Draperies, fourth floor. Quality and fair prices may always be expected here and the best in staple and novelty wares in greater assortments may be looked for always at this Home Furnishing Store.

Fine Wilton Rugs—A selection representing the leading manufacturers of America, ranging in price in 9x12 size from $98.50 to $168.50; beauty and quality are two of the considerations, price is the third; late patterns and colorings.

Axminster Rugs in a complete range of sizes, from the small 27-inch rug up to the 9x12 room size, showing a full range of patterns and pricing every rug on Fall, 1919 prices, an advantage in your favor of several dollars on the rug.

Cretonnes—There is an inviting array of Cretonnes and Chintz; so many patterns that when one wants the dainty and conservative or the more bizarre, colorful cretonnes, there will be plenty of either to choose from—59c to $1.50.

Curtain Nets, Voiles, Scrims, Marquisette Fancy Filet Nets, Glass Curtains for inside drapes—anything wanted in drapes for Spring and Summer, is now awaiting your approval.

Full stocks of Linoleum, Clearflax and other Fabric Rugs in complete assortments—Fourth Floor.

W. & S. Stripling Co.